

Finding Your Place in Service

1. Sharing your story

This can be one of the most effective tools for helping people understand Biblical principles. During your encounter with the seminars write down examples from your life that illustrate areas taught about.

2. Informing Others

Tell coworkers, neighbors, family, friends, and new people God brings into your path about the upcoming seminars.

3. Using God Given Giftings

Prophesying-Encourage Trust in God

Serving-Helps for Kingdom Growth

Teaching-Encourage Understanding Bible

Exhortation-Encourage Godly Lifestyle

Giving-Investing for Kingdom Growth

Engaging a Changing World

Over the past decades people in our society have been facing life situations with frustration. The pace life and the failure of previous generations to transfer practical wisdom on to those following them, has produced a generation which experiences discouragement on major fronts. Failures in personal finances, marriage, parenting skills, etc. are bringing people to the end of their resources and hope for the future.

The ways of the Kingdom of God, if applied to these and other areas of life, provide the wisdom and practical help needed to fill the void. The Fellowship provides seminars with people sharing from personal experience the truths they have found from walking in the ways of God that has a proven track record for thousands of years.
