Japan Attacks Pearl Harbor And Then Declares War on U. S.

Sea and Air Might Are Hurled Against England And U. S. by Japanese

By the Associated Press

Tokyo, Dec. 8—Japan hurled her sea and air might against western Pacific possessions of the United States and Great Britain today in a lightning assault followed by a formal declaration of war.

The first official news that Japan finally had come to grips with the two western powers came in an imperial headquarters announcement at 6 a. m. (4 p. m., EST Sunday) that a state of war existed with them as of dawn today.

Then Domei followed with a brief statement that naval operations already were in progress off Hawaii, nearly 3,500 miles away, with at least one Japanese aircraft carrier in action against the big American naval base at Pearl Harbor.

Japanese bombers, taking off from undisclosed bases, were declared to have blasted Honolulu at 7:35 a. m., Hawaii time (1:05 p. m. EST Sunday).

An hour after the war declaration Gen. J. Hideki Tojo, premier and war minister, held a 20-minute cabinet session and then the privy council met.

Domei said the premier told of the progress of war plans and outlined government policy, at both sessions.

In quick succession, U. S. Ambassador Joseph C. Grew and British Ambassador Sir Robert Leslie Craigie were summoned to the Foreign Office, London, advised.

Washington, Dec. 8 (AP)—The United States and Japan are at war today. And the first tidings told of heavy—"doubtless very heavy losses"—to the American armed forces. Pro-Axis radio broadcasting clarified Japanese victory claims.

Japan struck without warning. War was heralded by a Sunday morning Japanese blitzkrieg against American bases in the Pacific. Then, a few hours later, Japan sealed her action with the formality of a declaration of war on both the United States and Britain.

From Hawaii to the Philippines the Navy and the Army garrisons were fighting back on sea, land and air.

Congress Expected to Declare War

To meet this unprecedented situation, Congress was called into a momentous joint session to hear President Roosevelt deliver a special message (at 12:30 p. m., E.S.T.).

There was no mistaking the mood on capitol hill or throughout the city and the nation that stretched across the continent behind it. The pledges of support that poured into the White House from all sources showed the country was solidly united in a common cause behind the President, regardless of past differences and disagreements.

It was the overwhelming opinion in the capital that Mr. Roosevelt intended to ask Congress for a declaration of war or to find that a state of war existed.

The Power of God's Safety

Psalm 91:5-6

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in Him I will trust.”

Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler
And from the perilous pestilence.

He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and buckler.

You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,

Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.

Only with your eyes shall you look,
And see the reward of the wicked.

Because you have made the LORD, who is my refuge,
Even the Most High, your dwelling place,

No evil shall befall you,
Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;

For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.

In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.

You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

“Because he has set his love upon Me,
therefore I will deliver him;
I will set him on high, because he has known
My name.

“Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;

I will set him on high, because he has known My name.”

“He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;
I will deliver him and honor him.

With long life I will satisfy him,
And show him My salvation.”

Psalm 91:4 - New King James Version

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her!

How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing.

Matthew 23:37

His truth shall be your shield and buckler.
Psalm 91:4

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram
in a vision, saying,

“Do not be afraid, Abram.
I am your shield,
your exceedingly great reward.”

David Brainerd
(April 20, 1718–October 9, 1747)

Missionary to American Indians

Ministry to Susquehanna Indians

Stopped by river watched beaver and prayed.

Indian warriors sent to kill him watched waiting for right time for the kill.

As he prayed a rattlesnake came beside him, raised to strike, but then moved on.

The Indians noted that the “Great Spirit is with him” and left him alone.

The next morning Brainard went into the Indian Village and the tribe came out to meet him with a great welcome. The Lord protected him.

Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;
I will set him on high, because he has known My name.
He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;
